

Tartar Teen Talk

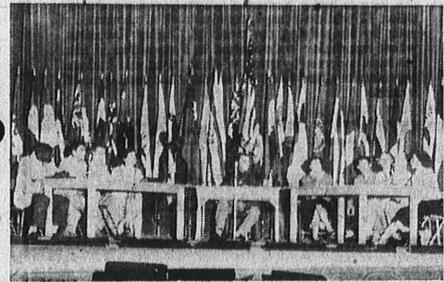

By MARIAN McDONALD

Congratulations to our football teams for winning the El Segundo games. We really are proud of you. We'll show this Bay League that we Tartars have a lot of fight in us.

The El Segundo rally was a big surprise to a lot of us. With old "Patty", Reynolds, "Booky" Bellnap, "Doray" Moore and "Half Pint" Gallo leading the yells, we found out that our teachers really have a lot of pep in them yet. Our thanks to you four teachers for doing this.

Tomorrow will be Red and Gray Day at Torrance High. Everyone come with something red and gray on to show Redondo and our teams that we really have school spirit and are behind our teams.

The Juniors had a class meeting recently with Harvey Rushfield, the president, presiding. Jim Blackstone, Calvin Browning and Bill Crawford were elected sergeants-at-arms. Arthur Sues, student council representative, gave a report on the Student Council. Then Sandra Guibranson, treasurer, urged the Juniors to pay their dues promptly so the activities could start sooner. The dues were voted to be $2. Suggestions were made for activities for the coming year.

HONORING U. N. WEEK . . . Against a back drop of all the flags of the United Nations a group of four foreign students (left) are interviewed by a panel of Torrance High School students at a special program last Thursday.

A very wonderful thing happened in the form of an aud call October 19. It was United Nations Week and four foreign students from Pepperdine College came down here to talk to our student body. The foreign students were Elizabeth Malak from Jerusalem, Fred Snell from the Netherlands, Eddie Chang, a native of Hong Kong, China, and Chukwemeka Okeke, whose home is Nigeria. The members of our student council who were on the panel discussion were Barbara Jackson, Martha Dunn, Annette Carter, Arnie Dandoy and Jack O'Crain. Irwin Kaesten, our Student Body president, was the chairman. Behind the members of the panel were the flags of all the United Nations, borrowed from Rotary International, of which our principal is a member. It was a very impressive and interesting aud call. I'm sure that we all realize how wonderful world friendship is.

Coming this Saturday is the Good Neighbor breakfast sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. The Tri Y and the Hi Y are going to serve for this breakfast; they are also selling tickets for 50c. The breakfast will be from 9:30 A. M. until 11 A. M. Elaine Reinhold has been chosen to be the hostess for this event. Betty Clem and Marian McDonald have been chosen to be co-hostesses. They extend an invitation to all of you to be there.

That mighty fine paper that everyone was reading up at school is our great TNT, Torrance News Torch, which is put out by a really great staff. Our TNT staff is working hard on that paper, as you can tell by the results of that first edition. Our paper is backed and supported by our Torrance merchants. We send our sincerest thanks to all you merchants who helped make this paper possible. Heading the staff is Ann Stephens, editor, with JoAnn Bernard, assistant editor; Helen Powell, exchange editor; Charles Lusk, circulation manager; Sharlie Moore, advertising manager and Ted White, assistant advertising manager rounding out the staff. Miss Mabel Kloster is faculty advisor.

The Scholarship Society had a meeting last week. It was voted that the club would take a field trip to UCLA. The students decided what building they would like to see, and planned the day. The trip will be on November 20, 1950.

You have probably been hearing a strange new abbreviation at school, namely the TTG. Well, the mystery is finally out. It stands for the Tartar Theater Guild. This is a new dramatic club, with a great attendance already. They have not elected officers yet, but have elected a steering committee to get the club organized. The members of this committee are: Joan Leech and Clare Bentwood, Freshman representatives; Betsy Shaw and Jim Crain, Sophomore representatives; JoAnn Bernard and Richard Uglund, Junior representatives, and Grace Lafferty and Irene Moreno Senior representatives. Mr. Dan Desmond is the faculty sponsor.

October 20th the group went to Los Angeles City College. They toured the campus and saw the costume rooms, make up department, sets, back stage and the radio studios. Then they went to the Campus Little Theater, where they saw "You Can't Take It With You." They are planning to put on a musical revue in December.

Walterian Reports To Tokyo Base

First Lieutenant Robert L. Whitley, of 24220 Ocean avenue, Walteria, recently arrived at Tachikawa Air Base, Japan, the Air Force announced this week. Lt. Whitley, whose wife, Dorothy, and three children, Robert, Dennis, and Dawn, are living at the Walteria address, is a graduate of Torrance High School and Compton College. He studied aeronautical engineering at Compton. Tachikawa is on the outskirts of Tokyo and is one of the most important installations in Japan, according to the Air Force. Lt. Whitley arrived there

Beaver Rally Slated For Tomorrow Evening

Beavers (the two-footed kind from Oregon State College), will converge on the Mayfair Hotel in Los Angeles at 7:30 tomorrow evening to meet the head coach of the Beavers' team, Kip Taylor.

Stuart A. Warren, Pasadena, president of the OSC Alumni of Southern California, will head a big pep rally at which Coach Taylor will discuss the chances of a victory over UCLA Saturday. Tickets for the special OSC rooting section will be available at the rally.
